

Sudan on the Brink – a Fire and Drum Rally

Los Angeles joins cities around the world on this global day of action, a Beat for Peace, the first leg in a yearlong campaign: Sudan365.

When: Saturday, January 9, 2010 - 6:00 - 7:00pm

Where: Los Angeles Federal Building: 11000 Wilshire Blvd,
Los Angeles, CA 90024

Park in the Federal Building Lot, entrance on Veteran

A BEAT FOR PEACE

Why:

Sudan 2010 is Sudan on the Brink. With elections in April and the all-important referendum only a year away, 2010 could see Sudan explode, with the world as spectator. The genocide in Darfur continues, and violence is rising alarmingly in the South. The Khartoum Government ignores its commitments, beating and jailing the opposition and making a sham of the upcoming elections, elections that are partially funded by our own tax dollars. It is time for us to stand with the people of Sudan. We will light a fire and make noise and sustain, demanding that our leaders work to impose immediate pressure and sanctions on President al-Bashir's government. Peace, Protection, and Justice for Sudan Now!

Join us! Bring friends and family.

For more information: ktj@stopgenocidenow.org

The logo for i-FACT features a stylized eye icon above the letter 'i'.
i-FACT
by STOPGENOCIDENOW.ORG